At Dassai, we only use the undisputed “king of sake rice” Yamada Nishiki. The rice is polished down to 50% or more when creating our specialized Junmai Dai-Ginjo styles. We use traditional methods with modern equipment as a means of making the most delicious sake possible.

I hope to hear the word “Oishii!” (“Delicious” in Japanese) when drinking Dassai sake at Netsu!

Mr. Kazuhiro Sakurai, President of Dassai Japan

Dassai Blue is an idea born in Japan and brewed in New York. Dassai Blue is produced with 100% Yamada Nishiki rice imported from Japan, as well as rice from the United States. We have spent three years cultivating Yamada Nishiki in the U.S. and have worked with Isbell Farms in Arkansas in an effort to reduce our carbon footprint and foster a sustainable supply chain. With our new brewery in Hyde Park, Dassai Blue hopes to introduce and share our sake with even more people.

We cannot wait for you to try it. Kampai!

At Netsu we have partnered with th Banshu-Ikkon brewery in Hyogo. The brewery was founded in 1837 and it derives its name from our hope that you will enjoy with great care the intrinsic quality of our local sake brewed with no effort spared and produced with the rice and water blessed by the bountiful nature of the Banshu region. A part of the blend in the “Banshu Ikkon” sake is aged in the “Meiju Cellar”. The company’s “Meiju Cellar” is located in one of the sections explored in Akenobe Mine. It is the only rice wine cellar inside a mine in Kansai.

Kampai!
