Destination Bodrum

Bodrum is one of the favourite Mediterranean destinations of today's discerning travellers. Blessed with a rich cultural history, a temperate climate, some of the finest food in Turkey and timeless natural beauty, its appeal is underpinned by a 174 km stretch of attractive coastline offering pristine beaches, pine-covered mountains, secluded coves and deep-water sports.

The city is served by multiple daily flights from Istanbul to Milas-Bodrum International airport, which connects with international services and enjoys direct flights from major European cities between April and September. Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum is a 45-minutes drive from Milas- Bodrum International Airport, and the region is increasingly served by private jets and helicopters as well as floatplanes and superyachts.

One of the most pleasant coastal villages nearby, Golturkbuku, adorned with stone-built properties trimmed with bougainvillea, is a magnet for Turkey's jet set. A five-minute drive from Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum, this former fishing village has an attractive bay now filled more often with yachts than with fishing boats, and transforms into a buzzing party venue on balmy summer nights.

Bodrum's centre has a lively city vibe throughout the year and offers world-class dining options around the marina, harnessing a concentration of Mediterranean influences, and an impressive nightlife along the cobbled pathways of the ever-popular Bars Street. Serious shoppers will enjoy the many outlets lining the busy narrow streets and displaying everything from leather goods and decorative items to jewellery and high fashion brands, while there are also local markets for fresh produce, and bazaars for handmade crafts.

CLIMATE

Bodrum has a comfortable year-round Mediterranean climate. Summer months are marked by hot days and pleasant evenings, whereas spring and autumn have mild-to-warm days and cool nights. The winter is short and mild. Swimming is possible from May to October.

TRAVEL INFORMATION

Located on the northern side of the Bodrum Peninsula the resort is close to the charming waterfront village of Golturkbuku, which has picturesque narrow streets, waterside restaurants and peaceful bay, and is a popular stopover destination for super yachts. The resort is a 45-minute drive from Milas-Bodrum International Airport and 30 minutes from the centre of Bodrum, and can be reached by yacht and private helicopter.

DINING

Showcasing an imaginative variety of dining experiences in inspiring settings. Our carefully curated selection of restaurants and bars are located throughout the resort. Embark on an exquisite culinary journey around the world.

From alfresco venues overlooking pristine beaches to more formal spots boasting exceptional breathtaking views, our lounges and bars invite cocktail conversations and camaraderie from day to night. The resort features ten restaurants & bars, as well as a range of bespoke dining experiences.

ACTIVITIES

Mandarin Oriental, Bodrum offers a myriad of activities to unlock the local treasures from memorable visits of world-renowned historical sites and distinctive adventures, to sailing the sapphire blue Aegean Riviera and thrilling watersports.

Soothe your mind, body and soul in our luxurious haven of pampering and holistic healing at The Spa at Mandarin Oriental or soak up the sun on one of the private beaches with breathtaking views of the sparkling sea.
