

ISMAEL MRANI ALAOUI

Dr. Ismael Mrani Alaoui is a world-renowned osteopath, Technogym global trainer and personal trainer. Drawing from his experience at the Olympic Games and his work with top football clubs such as Chelsea, AC Milan and Bayern Munich, he specialises in preparation, injury prevention and performance enhancement. His advanced techniques not only improve well-being but also provide effective relief for deep-rooted and long-standing pains, including back and knee issues. His treatments go beyond addressing specific concerns, promoting overall comfort, well-being and balance in the body.
