UNFOLDING LEGACIES

150 YEARS SHAPED BY VISION, HERITAGE, AND THE ART OF HOSPITALITY.

Since welcoming its first guests in 1876 as the Kingdom of Siam's first luxury hotel, Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok has remained a landmark of hospitality in Asia. From introducing electric lighting and personalised butler service to opening Thailand's first riverside spa, the hotel has long been defined by a pioneering spirit that continues to shape its character today.

In 2026, Mandarin Oriental, Bangkok invites guests to experience Unfolding Legacies, a year-long celebration marking 150 years of Thai hospitality and cultural significance. Through a programme of experiences inspired by its history and guiding pillars, the hotel reflects on the stories, people, and moments that continue to define its legacy.

WORLD-RENOWNED CHEF-BAKER

at The Authors' Lounge

A rare collaboration with a world-renowned chef-baker, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship in every creation.

✿✿ MICHELIN 2026

ANNE-SOPHIE PIC AT LE NORMANDIE

Now recognised with two Michelin stars, Thailand's first French fine dining restaurant enters a new chapter under Anne-Sophie Pic, the world's most Michelin-starred French female chef.

Guided by her philosophy of 'Suffusion', Chef Pic presents a contemporary expression of French gastronomy, where flavours unfold with balance, precision, and aromatic nuance.

BAAN PHRAYA

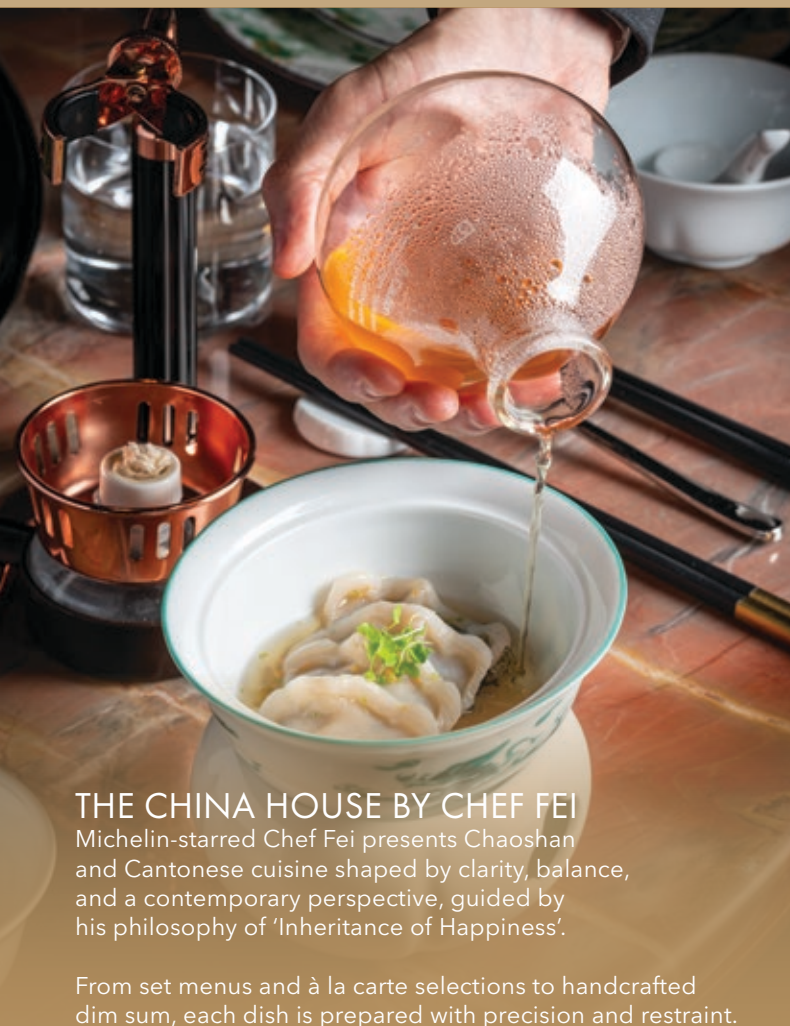

Set within a restored heritage house, Baan Phraya reflects the elegance of 1920s Siam.

Chef Phatchara 'Pom' Pirapak reinterprets time-honoured Thai recipes through a contemporary lens, drawing inspiration from historic cookbooks, family traditions, and personal food memories. The tasting menu presents a thoughtful expression of Thai culinary heritage that feels both nostalgic and quietly modern.

SEAFOOD BUFFET DINNER AT LORD JIM'S IS BACK

Buffet Dinner at Lord Jim's returns to the riverfront with an evening experience centred on seafood and relaxed dining by the Chao Phraya River. Set within the restaurant's yacht-inspired interiors, the atmosphere lends itself naturally to long dinners and easy conversation.

The buffet includes seafood on ice, a grilled seafood station with selections prepared à la minute, and a curated à la carte menu served directly to the table. Freshly baked breads and house-made dips are presented tableside to begin the experience. Entirely dedicated to seafood, the menu reflects the character of Lord Jim's and its longstanding connection to the river.

THE CHINA HOUSE BY CHEF FEI

Michelin-starred Chef Fei presents Chaoshan and Cantonese cuisine shaped by clarity, balance, and a contemporary perspective, guided by his philosophy of 'Inheritance of Happiness'.

From set menus and à la carte selections to handcrafted dim sum, each dish is prepared with precision and restraint.

MORE TO DISCOVER

Our culinary journey unfolds across 12 distinctive venues. From refined French gastronomy at two-Michelin-starred Anne-Sophie Pic at Le Normandie to the artistry of Cantonese cuisine at The China House by Chef Fei, each setting tells its own story. Thai heritage at Baan Phraya, live jazz at The Bamboo Bar, and afternoon tea in The Authors' Lounge together shape a dining landscape defined by craft and atmosphere.

THE ART OF MIND-BODY HEALING AT THE ORIENTAL WELLNESS CLUB

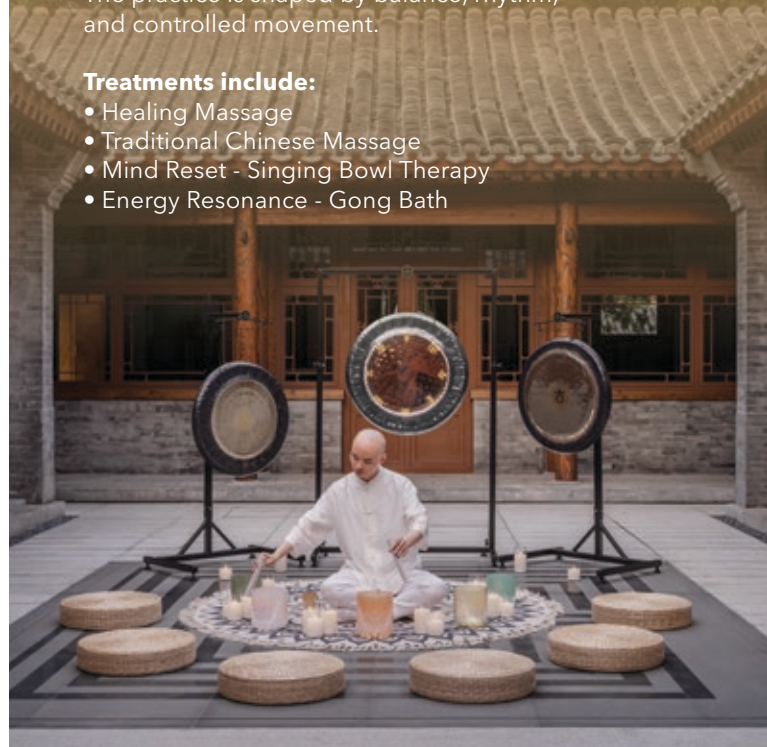

From 1 to 9 August, The Oriental Wellness Club welcomes visiting practitioner Chen Dahang (Spencer), whose Guanliu Healing Massage combines the principles of traditional Chinese healing with an intuitive, energy-led approach.

Drawing from Chinese, Thai, Swedish, and Hawaiian techniques, and inspired by the flowing movements of Tai Chi, Guanliu is both gentle and precise.

The practice is shaped by balance, rhythm, and controlled movement.

Treatments include:

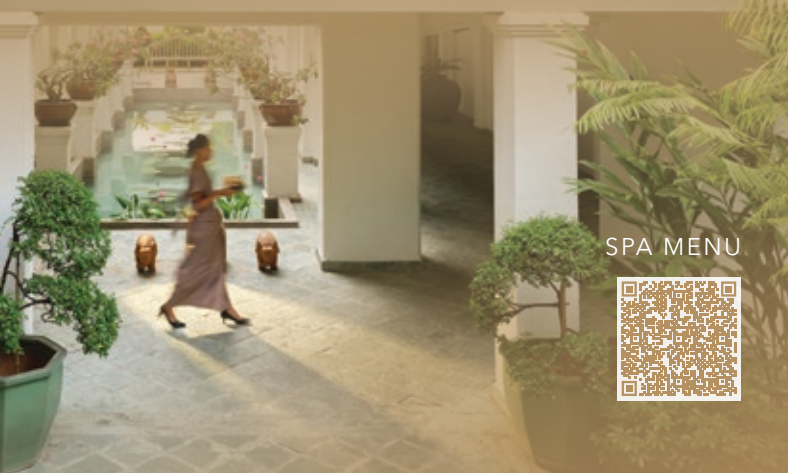

- Healing Massage
- Traditional Chinese Massage
- Mind Reset - Singing Bowl Therapy
- Energy Resonance - Gong Bath

THE ORIENTAL SPA

Pause for a moment. Step aboard the boat and cross to the quieter side of the river. Beyond the gentle current awaits a traditional teakwood sanctuary, where time softens and the pace slows. Here, treatments are thoughtfully crafted, drawing upon both contemporary practice and time-honoured traditions - restoring balance with quiet intention.

A place apart, yet deeply connected to the rhythm of the Chao Phraya.

A CONSTELLATION IN BLOOM – WHERE LIGHT BECOMES A STORY

A newly transformed lighting sculpture is now unveiled at RCB Artery, marking its first evolution in over a decade.

This special project is a collaboration between River City Bangkok and SARRAN, Thailand’s leading Art-to-Wear jewelry house known for its evocative designs worn by global icons like Alicia Keys and Lisa. Each creation by SARRAN tells a story – rooted in Thai elegance and timeless craftsmanship.

More than a chandelier, this piece reflects identity and spirit. Inspired by the dok rak flower – an ancient symbol of welcome and homecoming – it reimagines cultural heritage as a constellation of light.

10AM TO 8PM DAILY
